THE "SINGIN' SKULE BEGINNMENT."

The ladies of the Progressive Culture Club feel very much elated at securing the "Singin' Skule Beginnment" for so early a production as March 30th as the entertainment has become so popular and is so much in demand in all parts of the country that dates have to be secured far in advance in order to get it at all. Five conductors are kept constantly busy directing the performances in different sections of the country and two booking offices, one at Memphis and the other at Indianapolis, keep a large force busy attending to the bookings. Messrs. Bertram and Willard, the authors, have been secured to direct the performance here and to play their two character parts of Mister and Mistus Robbins, thus giving Paris the very best production of all of their combinations. A large cast of local talent will assist them and the ladies confidently expect this to be one of the finest affairs that has been presented along this line.

Dr. C. H. Bowen the optician, will be at A. J. Winters & Co.'s, on Thursday, April 12th. Examination free.

WIFE KILLED SISTER.

"I killed her not only because she destroyed my home, but because she was living in sin with my husband. She is better dead than living a disgraced woman." This was the statement of Mrs. Willie Standifer when she was arraigned before the Court at Atlanta, Ga., for killing her 17-year-old sister, Chappell Whisenant, whom she had discovered in an intrigue with her husband. The Court bound Mrs. Standifer for murder, and her husband was held for improper relations with the murdered girl. Mrs. Standifer was later admitted to bail and was released on $5,000 bond.

WILL BENEFIT BOURBON HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY.

The Central Home Telephone Company, a $5,000,000 corporation, has been organized and merged fifteen or twenty independent telephone systems in Kentucky and Southern Indiana. The Home Telephone Company of Paris is among the number. We asked the President, Mr. J. T. Hinton, how this would effect the local company and he replied: "There will be no change in the present management at all, and the stock will still be owned by our citizens. The only object in view is to perfect the service of the independent telephone companies in the State. By merging with these other companies our long distance connections will be as good as can be had and our service will be as near perfect as possible. For our company it will be just what it has needed and when all arrangements have been completed our subscribers will reap the benefits. Mr. Clarence L. Humbert, the present local manager, will be at the head of the new system in all neighboring counties in this part of Kentucky, and you can tell the subscribers to the Bourbon Home that the merge only means better service in every way."

For sale by KENNEY & CLARK. 2t STARVING TO DEATH.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair street, Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

SERIOUS BURN.

About ten days ago Dr. J. T. McMillan suffered a burn on the foot, and thinking lightly of the matter, attended to his office duties as usual. The burn became exceedingly painful, confining the Doctor to his home, with threatened blood poison. Dr. Keller, his physician, thinks he will be able to come to his office tomorrow, but will have to use crutches for some time.

A MACHINE LEGISLATURE.

The extraordinary session of the Legislature adjourned Thursday until today in order to give the members an opportunity to attend to pressing private business and to allow the printing of the important bills to be considered at the extra session, so says the reporters. They don't say though that there was never a quorum present at any of the extra session, which we are informed is the truth of the matter. That the regular session of the Legislature has been productive of little good all but the most intense partisans of the administration will be bound to admit. Both the House and the Senate were controlled absolutely by the administration, and the only Legislation enacted was that which met with the approval of Gov. Beckham and his friends. Many new offices were created for followers of the machine and every demand of the machine met by both houses, with one exception perhaps. The administration did let the whisky rectifiers capture the Senate in its closing hours and dictate the Revenue and Taxation Bill for that honorable (?) body.

It is true several important bills passed, but the session all in all and examine the bills passed and it looks to a man up a tree that this great body of statesmen were assembled, not to make laws for the good of the people, but solely to give the Governor more rope to further strengthen his "infernal machine." If daily newspapers would instruct their correspondents at Frankfort to send in facts in regard to the true situation of the workings of things before the Legislature, instead of instructing them to whitewash their reports and shield the machine, the people of Kentucky would be astounded to see what they were in reality up against.

NEEDS A NEW HEAD.

Among the bills which failed to pass in the Legislature were those making appropriations for State College. This is no doubt a general regret to all who are interested in educational matters. This institution should be at the head of all educational institutions in the State, but the management in the past few years has not been up to the standard by any means. While this paper has no personal enmity against President Patterson, yet it is almost the general opinion of the people who feel a pride in the State College, that President Patterson's days of usefulness are at an end, and the college needs a younger and more progressive man at the throttle. There will have to be a change in the management, in our humble opinion, before the college takes the place it should hold in the State. The Legislative Committee asked for an itemized statement of the expenditures of the appropriations to State College instead of a lumped statement as was given, and if the itemized statement was ever given we failed to hear of it or see any notice of it in any paper. The bills for the assistance of State College were reported without any recommendation by the Committee, showing upon the face of it that something was wrong or they would have been reported favorably, for it is a good cause and something that the State should back to the limit.

We believe, as many others do, that the real cause of lack of interest by the Legislators in regard to the appropriations were their objection to the present management, and the sooner President Patterson is removed and his Czar-like methods are eliminated from the institution, just so soon will State College occupy its proper station at the head of all educational institutions in Kentucky.

DISGRACEFUL STATE OF AFFAIRS.

It is admitted by the Governor of Kentucky in his proclamation calling the extra session of the Legislature that the powerful lobby of the whiskey rectifiers got to the Senate and got the rate of taxation fixed on rectified whiskies as they desired. Kentuckians should hang their heads in shame that such a state of affairs exist in this old Commonwealth, that the Senate of Kentucky can be controlled by lobbyists.

These lobbyists are well-known to every member of both houses of the Legislature and if they really wanted to go after these fellows right, it is an easy matter. The leading lobbyists were prominent politicians, one in particular has been mentioned as a probable candidate for Congress from this district. If he happens to announce himself you will hear him condemning trusts and corporations with a voice like thunder, yet he has been a lobbyist for these trusts for more than one term of the Legislature.

Lay aside your whitewash brushes for a season and be men instead of 2x4 politicians if you really want to represent the people, and stop having it insinuated that you are but hirelings of either trusts or a political machine.

NIAGARA FALLS ALREADY RUINED.

"Niagara Falls are already ruined," says the eminent hydraulic engineer, Alton D. Adams, in Technical World Magazine for April. "Already enough water rights have been granted by New York State and Canada to divert all the water which now, falling over both the American and the Canadian falls, makes the great cataract one of the natural wonders of the world. If the capitalists and promoters who now hold franchises were all to establish plants, the entire flow of Niagara river would be diverted into underground channels; and the mighty cliffs over which the torrent now pours in resistless grandeur would be rugged and bald and dry."

Mr. Adams sees small hope in the proposed treaty between the United States and Great Britain. He does not believe that Canada will be a willing party to any treaty which will cut off the great income it enjoys from leasing Niagara power. His plan is to excavate and deepen the channel leading to the American fall, which will otherwise run dry long before the Canadian or Horse-shoe Falls will be at all affected.

SIMPLE "SPELING."

Prof. Brander Matthews, head of the Board of Education of New York, which has been formed to introduce changes in spelling, expressed himself a few days ago to his classes in Columbia as pleased with the way the announcement had been received. He said he had expected that the board would be met by a storm of criticism and dissent.

Professor Matthews said it was an atrocious inconsistency that the most practical people in the world should have the worst spelling. "We may not be a great deal," he added, "but at any rate, we will have the dictionaries on our side, and will be able to change them."

Dr. Charles P. G. Scott, temporary secretary of the Simplified Spelling Board, believes that the way to regulate "spelling"—for that is the word he uses—is by a campaign of education rather than forcing changes on the public. "Some agency has been needed to check the continuing error in our spelling," he said. "We hope that our board will prove to be this agency. We should place spelling on the same plan with everything else. We alter our houses, our clothes, and we even change our religion that we should go on year after year with the old puzzling forms."

"We want to take the English language and regulate and simplify it and remove the anomalies. We think it wrong to be teaching the perverse spelling that adds the brain of the children. We expect in time to spell 'definite' without the e. 'Philosophy' with two f's and in general do away with the ph's and gh's that worry the children."

A USE FOR OLD STOCKINGS.

Cut off the feet, unpick the legs, and then join them up, two together, for rubbers. These will be found to make excellent "house flannels" and useful polishers for furniture. The cut-off feet, open out, are handy for applying the beeswax and turpentine or other polishing medium.

AUTOMOBILE HIS HOUSE.

To travel from Chicago to Portland, in an automobile house is the plan of George Washington and his family. The car is ready for the trip. It is twenty-seven feet long and six feet wide, and the interior measures from seven to eight feet from floor to ceiling. The automobile is of weathered oak, sheathed with sheet iron. Three motors furnish the motive power. Entrance is obtained by a short flight of steps in the car, on one side of which is an ice box, while on the other space for the storage of tools. The kitchen and dining room occupy the rear two-fifths of the automobile. On top of a heat-proof storage chest is a small gasoline stove for cooking. Under the back is a water reservoir. In the front room is a folding bed, chairs and Mrs. Washington's sewing machine, as well as the controlling apparatus of the automobile.—Chicago Correspondent to New York Herald.

STILL HOPEFUL.

Methuselah was 950 years old that day.

"I s'pose you're about ready to go?" said a jocular friend.

"Well, no," answered the old man mildly. "I sold a poem to a monthly magazine when I was about twenty-five, I'd kinder like to hang on to see the darn thing in print."

BIGGEST MILL IN THE WORLD.

On the banks of the Merrimac River at South Lawrence, Mass., the American Woolen Company is building a mill which makes most other American buildings seem small in comparison. This one mill is 1,900 feet—considerably over a third of a mile—in length. It has a width of 150 feet, is six stories in height, and will cost $3,500,000.

This mill will give employment to 6,000 persons, and to save the time and strength of the thousands who will be employed on the upper floors escalators will be provided which will lift 40,000 of them to fourth, fifth and sixth stories in five minutes. Engines of 10,000 horse power will actuate the machinery, all transmission of power being by electricity.

THEN A CHURCH FAIR.

The pastor of a church in Virginia made an urgent appeal to his congregation for funds necessary to pay for repairs. The result of this appeal was disappointing, for not more than half the testimony needed was given.

The next day at a meeting of the vestrymen the pastor referred to the discouraging returns and asked advice in the matter of securing funds. "Well," said a vestryman, "we have failed to get the money honestly; so I suppose we'll now have to see what a church fair will do for us."

"LAST WORDS."

The Washington correspondent of the New York World says that recently the discussion in the Democratic cloakroom turned to the last words of dying men.

Several interesting stories on this line were contributed by different members, but Representative Trimble of Kentucky won the prize when he said: "I don't know many of the last sentiments of great men, but this talk reminds me of the inquest they held over the body of Chad Howard down in my State."

"Chad Howard was mixed up in one of the feuds and he killed a few of his opponents one day. They arrested him and took him to the county jail, which was a log affair, made with very thick walls and but one window and an iron-bound door. Howard was the only prisoner in the jail. One night the jailer came in to keep him company, and they began to shake a friendly game of dice on a box top, with a candle between them."

"After the game had been going on for half an hour a man who was allied with the other end of the Howard feud came up to the window, put a double-barrelled shotgun through and blew off the top of Howard's head. They had an inquest, and the jailer was the star witness. He described Howard's death in the minutest detail."

"Then the coroner said, 'Can you tell the jury what was the last words of the deceased?'"

"Yes, sir," the jailer replied. "I reckon I kin. Near's I kin remember the last dyin' words of the deceased was, 'Three aces to beat.'"

This calls to mind the interesting explanation of the last words of Daniel Webster as given by Ben Perley Poore, in his "Reminiscences." It will be remembered that the last words of Webster as told in the school-books were: "I still live." The school children of the long ago obtained the impression that this was an assertion of Webster's faith in immortality, or perhaps a declaration that, although dead, he would live in history. At all events, it was presumed to be a dying declaration worthy of preservation.

Ben Perley Poore says that when the doctor called on Webster for the last time he realized that his patient had not long to live, and so instructed the nurse: "Give him a teaspoonful of brandy, and if an hour later he still lives, give him another tablespoonful of brandy."

A clock hung on the wall at the foot of the bed and when the hands showed that the hour was up, the nurse was not paying great attention to duty. Webster, turning to the nurse said, faintly: "I still live."

Mr. Poore tells us that Webster got his brandy.

THE SUPREME TEST.

"Your wife has great confidence in you, hasn't she?"

"I should say she has," answered Mr. Meekton. "She depends on me absolutely to take care of the dog when she goes away."

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret, medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

—Mrs. N. D. McClintock, of this city, sold 85 acres of land, lying opposite the Harrison county infirmary farm, to Judge King, of Harrison county, for $7,000.

—The oldest mule in Kentucky, if not in the United States, has just died. The mule was the property of John Mobley, of Bardstown, and was foaled in April 1865. Had she lived until next month, she would have been 41 years of age.

—Mr. D. L. Kilty, who brought a number of brood mares to Brooklawn Farm, has returned to Gettysburg Pa., taking with him a thoroughbred filly of Scott Hudson, one Shorthorn bull from the famous herd of Mr. Joe Hall and two Shorthorn heifers purchased of Mr. Joseph Howerton.

—Gen. C. C. Watts, Charleston, W. Va., has shipped three very high bred mares to S. D. Burbridge, Brooklawn Farm, to be bred to Silk Weaver 2:19 1/2. Mr. Henry Dickerson and Dr. Churchman, of the same place, will also ship mares. Another consignment of mares will be shipped to Brooklawn Farm in April. Fifteen mares have already been booked to Silk Weaver.

—Mr. Wm. P. Wornall and Messrs. J. L. and V. K. Dodge have purchased of Mrs. Lou Ford at $95 per acre, her farm of 196 acres lying on both sides of the Steele pike, in Bourbon county, and directly between the farms of the purchasers. Dodge Bros. will get eighty-six acres well-improved and Mr. Wornall will get 110 acres lying on the east side of the pike and unimproved.

—What is a supposed trotting wonder has been discovered in Alexandria, La., in a three-year-old colt by Jay McGregor (2:07 1/2), out of Excursion, by Expedition (2:15 1/2). W. L. Spears, of Hickorywood Stud Farm, near Muir, has received information from Alexandria that the colt is simply a marvel, and has this early in the season trotted a half in 1:07 1/2 and an eighth in 0:32 1/2. His trial mate is a mare with a record of 2:15, and he simply pulls to her when they are speeding together.

—Ollie Hardman raised on the farm of Harvey Rogers, in Montgomery, on ten acres of land, 23,000 pounds of tobacco, which he sold to the American Tobacco Company at 12 and 5 cents, 2,500 going in at latter price. The tobacco brought $2,645.00 or an average of $264.50 per acre or three times the value of the land on which it was grown.

—Welsh Bros., of near Centerville, this county, sold to Abnee & Mussinon 12,000 pounds of tobacco at 8 cents per pound.

—B. F. Buckley sold to Hibler Bros., 17 hogs at 6 cents per pound. The Messrs. Hibler, also bought of other parties sixty-five, 200-pound hogs, at same price. Mr. Buckley also bought of Wm. Johnson, of near Sadieville, Ky., a fancy driving mare at a good price.

A. J. Winters & Co. will move to their new store room opposite Court House, April 1st.

RELIGIOUS.

—At the earnest solicitation of the State Foreign Missionary Boards, Elder J. S. Sweeney will leave June 1st for a several months' itinerary through Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Texas to deliver in the cities having the largest congregations a series of discourses setting forth the position of the Christian church on all questions of faith and practice. Eld. Sweeney is regarded as one of the strongest preachers of the Christian church, and his discourses being very deep, profound and logical. His itinerary will consume the entire summer and fall.

—At the Christian church, Elder Carey E. Morgan is preaching a series of very interesting Sunday night sermons. His subject on last Sunday night was "Sources of Failure" and it should have been heard by every young man in Paris. The speaker claimed that among the numerous bad habits which were the causes of failure were the habits of indolence, uncontrolled temper, unguarded speech and the drink habit. The latter he very forcibly described as "the hurricane habit" likening its results to those of a hurricane, leaving desolation and ruin in its path. Elder Morgan's subject for next Sunday night will be "Has the Young Man of Today a Chance?"

WORK WILL NOW BEGIN.

The Bluegrass Traction Co. is receiving material for the extension of the road around the court house to Main street, the poles being distributed yesterday. Work on the extension will begin as soon as the weather permits.

BROWER

Wall Decorations for Spring.

We announce the arrival of Mr. George F. Minkie, formerly of Cleveland, O., who has taken charge of our Wall Paper department. Mr. Minkie comes to us with seventeen years experience in decorating the interior of the homes of Cleveland, the most beautiful city in America.

It is his intention to introduce pleasing, new styles in Wall Decorations.

Our Spring showing, many designs in which are private to us for Kentucky, makes this possible because of the originality and beauty of the patterns.

We will be glad to take up the matter of all Decoration with you at any time.

AMUSEMENTS.

—What the Cincinnati Enquirer says of "Dora Thorne": "A large audience gave its seal of applauding approval to this bit of stage literature last night. Judging from the applause, the production is just what the theatre-goers want. 'Dora Thorne,' as a story, is too well known for comment, but it must be admitted that the playwright has improved upon the plot to such an extent that the play is far more interesting than the book. Dramatic license is somewhat elastic at times, to say the least, and in the play the most dramatic and exciting points of the book are brought out with decisive action and clearness. Nor is the comedy found wanting; much humor is intermingled with the episodes of the drama, making as a whole a play, novel and interesting in the extreme." At the Grand Thursday night.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED.

Typical March weather has prevailed, much to the discomfort of all especially farmers, business men and those dependant upon laboring as a means of livelihood. In the city business of all kinds has been practically suspended. After several days of rain the weather Friday turned into sleet, and then snow. Saturday the thermometer registered as low as twelve degrees above zero, stock suffering greatly, especially young lambs, many farmers losing from a dozen to as high as fifty. The wheat crop has no doubt been damaged, as well as the fruit crop. Farmers are well up with their work, most tobacco beds having been sown. The old crop of tobacco is moving freely, only about 20 per cent. remaining in farmers' hands unsold.

THREE WOUNDED.

In a general mix-up of whites and blacks, at the corner of Eighth and High streets a little after midnight Saturday, in which a pistol duel ensued, two white men and one negro were wounded. The fact that no one was killed borders on the marvelous, for as near as can be estimated twenty-five shots were fired at close range.

A number of business men who close their establishments at about 11:30 o'clock, had gone to the above corner to take an interurban car for their homes. As the midnight hour drew near, Golden Bros., who conduct a saloon near by, cleared their place of business in order to close promptly at 12 o'clock. A number of negroes who reside in or near Lexington, came out of the saloon, most of whom had been drinking heavily. Immediately there was a clash with the whites, some of whom were also drunk. One of the negroes took offense at something said and felled a white man heavily to the ground. Immediately knives and pistols were drawn and the fusillade began, the crowd scattering in every direction. Officer Ben Bishop heard the shots and rushed to the scene. The interurban car also pulled up on its way to Lexington, many of the participants boarding the car and making their escape.

Officer Bishop succeeded in placing Charles Watson, a negro, under arrest and landed him in jail.

Later on, it is said, that a man was knocked in the head with a slung shot in the alley on Eighth street in the rear of the Main street business houses, and that a general fight in "Sandy Bottom" took place, in which several shots were fired.

Although the lawless and disreputable hoodlums tried to take the town, and would, had it not been for several cool and nifty business men taking the matter in their hands.

The two policemen that patrol the city at night can not always be present when these difficulties come up, and as a general thing, those who precipitate trouble await the opportunity when the officer is in some other locality.

Yesterday Pete Faulconer and John Carter, both negroes, were arrested in Lexington, as two of the participants, Faulconer was brought here and placed in jail. Carter was badly wounded in the foot, several shattered bones having to be taken out, it being impossible to move him.

Sid Boswell, another negro who it is known was shot in the groin has not been located.

HARD HIT.

The grand jury, after a week of arduous work, assisted by Commonwealth's Attorney Robt. B. Franklin, filed into court late Saturday afternoon, with a true bill against the following parties:

Will Stout, murder; Will Stephenson, bigamy; George Williams, grand larceny; Letton Lawrence, malicious cutting; M. L. Woods, Newt. Current, H. O. James, O. H. Peddicord and Dan Connor, gaming; Henry Hibler, George Duvall, Newt. Current, Stout Leer, M. J. and Ed. Doyle, Stanley Dow, Dan Connor, Frank Duvall and Embury Downey, selling liquor to minors; Henry Dawson, injuring property; Lige Allen, petit larceny.

The indictments for gaming carry with a verdict for conviction a forfeiture of liquor license. The grand jury adjourned to meet Monday, March 26, when they will inspect the county jail and infirmary.

A. J. Winters & Co., the up-to-date jewelers, will move to their new store room April 1st.

BOURBON COUNTY FAIR.

On last Saturday the stockholders of the Bourbon County Fair held an enthusiastic meeting at the courthouse, at the conclusion of which a directors' meeting was held. A number of additional subscriptions were reported, after which each director agreed to call upon as many people as possible during the coming week to solicit subscriptions, and to report back to the Directors meeting to be held next Saturday at 2 p. m. The fair is a certainty. The only question now is whether it shall be an unqualified success from the start by having sufficient funds to pay for complete equipment this year. Every business man in Paris and Bourbon county should subscribe during the coming week. Not one would fail to derive from each meeting more than the cost of a share of stock.

The grounds have not been located but this matter may be well left in the hands of the committee heretofore appointed for this purpose. A better committee could not have been selected. Every business man in Bourbon county should take stock in this enterprise this week. A list of stockholders with the number of shares taken by them can be seen at the News office. Come in today and subscribe. The Bourbon News will take two shares. Who's next?

DEATHS.

—Mr. Frank Hall, aged 62 years, died Saturday morning at 7 o'clock at the residence of his son, John Hall, in this city, of general debility. Mr. Hall was born in this county where he lived all his life. He is survived by two brothers, Thos. and Wm. Hall, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Coulthard, all of this county, and two sons, John Hall, of this city, and Rodney Hall, of Mexico, Mo., and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Overstreet, of Mexico, Mo. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Sam Smith, near town, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT DEPOT.

Yesterday afternoon shortly after the 5:40 L. & N. train had departed a shooting affray took place in front of the ticket office, in which it is alleged H. J. McClure fired four shots at J. L. Munday. Both of the men are employees of the L. & N. The trouble is the result of an old grudge of some standing. Munday went before Judge E. T. Hinton and swore out a warrant for McClure's arrest.

A Problem in Wizardry.

We want to know why persons who believe in wizards, or, at all events, consult wizards, nearly always prefer to believe in men or women who are of a race inferior to their own or in circumstances which prove that their occult powers are of no use to themselves. The rule is not invariable, for there have been great wizards like Paracelsus, Roger Bacon, Michael Scott and Cagliostro, who were acknowledged by those who consulted or feared them to be in all ways their superiors, but it is seldom broken. In all the letters on country superstitions which we have published the "wise" man or woman has always gypsy blood or some peculiarity of appearance marking out him or her unfavorably from their kind. The wizard of India is usually a naked savage, while those who resort to him are civilized beings clothed carefully in muslin. The reverence of the whites for the black obeah man or woman in the West Indies is the subject of countless narratives, especially in the French islands.—London Spectator.

Solid Emery Wheels.

In the production of solid emery wheels the best cement that can be employed is one that binds the emery together with that degree of strength which will resist the centrifugal strain due to the high speed at which emery wheels cut best—about 5,000 feet speed per minute. It must not soften by frictional heat or glaze or burst or become brittle and break with cold, nor must it hold the cutting grains until they are too dull to cut nor release them so readily as to waste away the wheel too fast. It must be capable of being thoroughly mixed evenly with the grain emery, so that the wheel may not have either hard or soft spots and be out of balance, and must also be capable of being tempered to suit different kinds of metal or work. Great care and skill are required in the matter of selecting only pure and strong chemicals for these cements.—Cassier's Magazine.

The Bald Head.

A bald head is a less familiar (and nowadays less true) representative of the unchangeable than the Ethiopian's skin or the leopard's spots, but it was cited in this character with impressive pathos by Hipparchus, one of the seven martyrs of Samosata. After they had been subjected to severe tortures they were at last confronted with seven crosses, and the Emperor Maximian offered them a last chance to recant. But the aged Hipparchus put his hand on his bald head and cried, "As this, according to the order of nature, cannot again be covered with hair, so never will I change or conform to your wish!" Maximian ordered a goat's skin to be nailed to Hipparchus' head and then jeeringly claimed that the condition was fulfilled. But Hipparchus remained obdurate and speedily died on the cross.—London Chronicle.

He Was Absentminded.

The absentminded man is at it again. He had been reading the egg story and decided to try the trick. The first thing to do was to boil the egg. How many minutes? he asked himself, and, going to the stove with the egg in one hand and his watch in the other, he dropped the latter in the hot water. Then, placing the egg on the table, he sat down to read until the time was up. At the end of five or six minutes he was surprised to find the egg lying there before him, but, supposing that he had himself taken it from the kettle and cooled it, he proceeded to crack and peel it. The consequence may be imagined. Finally he missed his watch. The house was searched high and low, and it was not till the following morning that the cook found it in the kettle, where it had been boiling for hours.—Exchange.

Whales.

Whales, though they are mammals, are fitted to live like fishes in water. The true whales are of two kinds of families—the spermacetti whale, which has teeth in the lower jaw, and the whalebone whale, which has none. Of the first named there are two species, the cachalot and the sperm, which when full grown measures from seventy to eighty feet. The capture of this animal is attended with greater danger than that of the whalebone or Greenland whale on account of its formidable teeth.

Gave Him a Start.

Holding up a pair of antique candlesticks, an auctioneer said: "Give me a start." "A dime!" came a voice from the crowd. "What!" exclaimed the horrified auctioneer. "Ah," said the bidder, "I thought that would give him a start!"

Reckless.

Doctor (to wife of patient)—Be brave, madam. It is my painful duty to inform you that in twenty-four hours your husband will be no more. The Wife (overwhelmed with grief, but at the same time having regard to expense)—Good gracious! And you have prescribed medicine for five days at least.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD HORSE THIEF.

Dewey Troutman, aged five years, of Paducah, was taken to the reform school in Fayette, last week, for stealing three horses in forty minutes. He is the youngest lad in the institute and is a handsome and bright little fellow.

But Dewey is a genuine horse thief. He has a mania for taking horses hooked to grocery wagons. His generosity is unlimited, for he desires the poor to profit from the fruits of his thefts. In all his horse stealing Dewey was never known to take a horse hooked to a wagon that did not contain a lot of well filled baskets of provisions.

He was accustomed to drive a wagon to that portion of Paducah in which the poor lived, and give away the groceries. Two months ago Dewey broke his record by stealing three horses and two wagons. The police chased the youngster for squares before he was caught. The child's parents found themselves powerless to control him and had to turn him over to the authorities.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

AN INVETERATE GAMBLER.

A cablegram from across the waters says that Countess De Miranda, long known to the lyric stage as Christine Nilsson, the Swedish Nightingale, is an inveterate gambler. She has a beautiful villa near Mentone, but spends a great deal of her time at the Monte Carlo gaming tables, at which, gossips say, she has lost $200,000 this season.

As modest in her attire as she was always in her stage demeanor, she dresses with almost Quakerish simplicity, wearing over her white hair a black silk bonnet severely divided down the middle with lavender strings fastened in a bow under her chin and always being seen in a black silk costume. Thus arrayed she makes a striking picture with her extremely handsome, intensely hard, marble-white face, keen penetrating light gray eyes, half-closed lids, a handsome cut mouth shut like a vise, a firm, finely moulded chin, her exquisitely shaped alabaster-hued hands, literally pouring gold on the table.

Her absolute impassiveness of demeanor, whether winning or losing, her utter and haughty obliviousness to surroundings, suggest the figure of fate coldly battling with chance.

She always plays roulette, and a prim-looking, elderly French maid constantly stands behind her chair.

MILLENNIUM LONG WAY OFF.

Former Senator William C. Lindsay, of Kentucky, recognized as one of the legal giants of America, is in Washington briefing, with the assistance of President C. C. McCord, of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, the rate case. Senator Lindsay said, in discussing politics and the American people: "It seems to me that modern politics and sensationalism stand for pretty nearly the same things. A big clamor is started, reformers fill the air with denunciations of evils, and the people go wild over the prospect of legislation that will abolish all ills and bring happiness. We have seen this program enacted at intervals, and the millennium is in the dim and misty future. Curiosity enough, as soon as the objects sought for are attained the public seems no longer to care for that particular blessing, but straightway turns its attention to some new panacea."

"The defeat of the octopus in the Northern Securities case was heralded as one of the greatest victories ever won in behalf of the people—a triumph far-reaching and permanent. Today it is a rare thing to hear the slightest allusion made on that decision. Who is there that can say that the upholding of the Government's contention in that suit has brought benefits to a single human being; that, by reason thereof, any shipper in America ever got a cent's reduction of freight charges?"

"This country is all right and doesn't seem to be in need of remedial treatment through legislative enactment. The people in the long run are conservative, however much they may follow after fads and freaks and iridescent dreams. Eventually they will get back into the safe channels, discarding the issues that promise so much, but pan out so poorly."

MIGHTY PARTICULAR NOW.

The lobbyist is going to have a hard row to hoe at the extra session of the Legislature, no matter how easy may have been the picking during the regular session, in one branch of the General Assembly, at least. They are very particular after the lobbyist has been allowed full sway and have control of that body, for it has been publicly announced that the strong lobby of the whisky rectifiers of Kentucky tied up legislation and got what they wanted in the Revenue Bill. The tax payers are now paying over $1,000 per day for this extraordinary session of this extraordinary body, because it allowed the lobbyist to dictate the bill for Revenue and Taxation for Kentucky. They are mighty particular now and have passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That during the extra session of the General Assembly called to meet March 14, 1906, no person shall be at any time permitted to come or remain upon the floor of the Senate while the same is in session, except the members and officers of the Senate, House of Representatives, of this Commonwealth and the accredited representatives of the press, and that upon a violation of this resolution being indicated, it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate to summarily enforce this order."

CUT FLOWERS.

Leave your orders for cut flowers of all kinds with Jo Varden. Both phones. SIZED UP RIGHT.

The defeat of the Stewart Libel Bill in the House at Frankfort is causing some caustic editorials in the papers of the State. Editor Allen, of the Cynthiana Times sizes up the situation about right when he says:

"The House at Frankfort by a vote of 49 to 43, defeated the Libel Bill, a measure meant to insure something like justice to newspaper publishers. Under the present laws a newspaper publisher may be sued in any county in the State in which a newspaper circulates. A sample copy mailed into a county is regarded as a circulation. Under the Stewart Bill, which has been defeated, suit was required to be brought either in the county where the paper was published or in the county where the aggrieved person resides. There is a lot of 2x4 lawyers in the House who thrive on just such pap as libel suits afford, and there is a lot of 1x2 politicians whose rascality has been shown up by the press. These are the 'statesmen' who control legislation and who never would have risen above the bogs in which they were 'bred except for the newspapers."

Scientific Precautions.

We disinfect with Dr. Geo. Leininger's Solidifide Formaldehyde and Apparatus. No contagion. No bad order. Every scientific precaution taken. This method has been adopted by our Health Board, and nearly every Health Board, Hospital and School Board in the leading cities in the United States. The Pullman Co. disinfest 1,200 cars every week with Dr. Geo. Leininger's Solidifide Formaldehyde and Apparatus.

Geo. W. DAVIS, Paris, Ky.

REPUBLICANS PRACTICALLY AGREED.

Republicans of Kentucky, it is reliably stated, have practically agreed upon Judge A. R. Burnam, of Richmond, for the Republican nomination for Governor of Kentucky in 1907. Republican leaders believe he can bring together the two factions of the party. The Democrats could also find a worthy leader at Richmond in the Hon. R. W. Miller.

NO EXHIBIT AT JAMESTOWN.

Kentucky will have no exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition unless through such a movement as got for the State an exhibit at St. Louis. At the last minute Tuesday it was discovered that the bill making the appropriation of $25,000 had not been reported to the House. As a result, H. N. Castle, who has been in Frankfort since the beginning of the session working for the bill, is a very much disappointed man. He blames Ed Shellman, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, for this condition.

Free Reclining Chair Cars.

The Southern Railway has inaugurated free reclining chair car service between Louisville and Evansville on their fast through trains leaving Louisville at 7:30 a. m. and 5 p. m. daily, and running solid to Evansville, without change. The Southern Railway is 23 miles the shortest from Louisville to Nashville and forty-three miles the shortest to St. Louis.

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health. A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. In families where Angust Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

FOR LUNCHEON.

Slices of toast well moistened with plain scrambled eggs sprinkled with grated cheese make a tasty and nutritious luncheon dish.

Slices of fried bread of ordinary toast with anchovy paste are delicious if covered with scrambled eggs. This is a very nice supper dish.

Ordinary poached eggs arranged on toast are delicious covered with white sauce or with tomato sauce.

For an appetizing supper dish, cover the bottom of each individual egg shirrer with tomato sauce pretty highly seasoned with paprika and onion, drop in a poached egg, and at each side of it a small sausage. Dot the egg with butter and reheat in the oven.

—Mrs. W. F. Carpenter attended the embroidery sale at Gibson house, Cincinnati, last week, and sold quite a number of handsome patterns. She had more than seven hundred dollars worth of work there on exhibit instead of one hundred as reported in Friday's issue.

—A scene was created at the home of Al Clark, colored, Sunday morning when Jim Fields, of Claysville, attempted to take Annie Gatewood from the place to Paris, Fields claiming that she had stolen some money from him Saturday night. Marshall Williams was hastily summoned and caught them a little way south of the bridge. Fields was lodged in jail and arraigned before Judge Wadell for trial yesterday.

—The largest horse sale ever held in Bourbon county was that pulled off Saturday by Thos. McClintock & Sons. For several days prior the weather had been very inclement and it was feared that the buyers would not be numerous. The day, however, was beautiful and those really desiring good horses were on hand. About three hundred visitors were here. All the surrounding towns were represented and buyers from Ohio, Georgia, Indiana and Pennsylvania were on the ground. The bidding was lively and spirited. Col. Stoner, of Cincinnati, the well-known auctioneer, started the ball to rolling at ten o'clock and by three 75 head had been sold at an average of $183.40 per head. W. H. Kerr and

Thos. Wilmore, of Lexington; H. S. Caywood, of North Middletown; W. H. Whaley, of Paris; A. S. Fritz, of Pennsylvania; W. J. Shannon, Indiana; A. Allen, of Leesburg; Dick Jordan, Mt.
